$1.5 MILLION TO SUPPORT ST JOSEPH'S MARONITE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN CROYDON

Sally Sitou MP today announced that a re-elected Albanese Labor Government will deliver $1.5 million to support the completion of the community centre at St Joseph's Maronite Catholic Church.

This $1.5 million election commitment will fund essential lift infrastructure and shaft works at the St Joseph's parish site on Acton Street in Croydon, ensuring the new community centre is accessible and inclusive for all.

The project has faced challenges due to unforeseen construction costs, and this additional investment will allow the parish to move forward with certainty.

This builds on the Albanese Labor Government's strong record of delivering for local faith-based and community infrastructure in western Sydney.

Consistent with past practice, election commitments will be delivered in line with Commonwealth Grants Rules and Principles.

Quotes attributable to Sally Sitou MP

"St Joseph's is a pillar of the Croydon community, and this centre will be a place of welcome, connection and support."

"This additional funding ensures the centre will be fully accessible and built to serve the whole community for years to come."

"Only a re-elected Albanese Labor Government can be trusted to deliver this vital local investment."
